

Elizabeth M. Mosser was appointed as a Magistrate with the Logan County Family Court on October 17, 2022. Magistrate Mosser is thrilled to have the opportunity to serve Logan County, having been born here at Mary Rutan Hospital and, before law school, having worked as a clerk in Bellefontaine for the law firm of Smith, Smith, Montgomery and Chamberlain.

Magistrate Mosser received her Bachelor of Arts from The Ohio State University in 2001. She obtained her Juris Doctorate from Ohio Northern University's Claude W. Pettit College of Law in 2012, and was admitted to the practice of law in the State of Ohio in 2013.

Magistrate Mosser started her career in private practice, opening the Marysville office of Brumbaugh law firm in 2013. She accepted a position as Of Counsel to the law firm of Schulze, Howard and Cox in 2014. In 2018, Magistrate Mosser became an associate of the firm, which became known as Schulze, Cox and Will in 2020.

Prior to earning a law degree, Magistrate Mosser was trained as a Guardian Ad Litem and Civil and Domestic Relations Mediator, and used those skills and certification throughout her practice. She was later certified to accept Guardianship appointments, which she added to her practice as well. In her practice, Magistrate Mosser litigated family law matters including custody, child support, adoption, probate, and guardianship, and further practiced in the areas of estate planning, Medicaid planning, and real estate. She argued before the Third District Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court of Ohio.

Magistrate Mosser is a regular attendee of Grace Brethren Church, and was previously a member of Calvary Baptist Church where she served as a Trustee and Missionary Ambassador. She currently volunteers with the Marysville Quarterback Club, Marysville Show Choir Booster Club, and enjoys helping with her children's activities. Magistrate Mosser previously participated in the Union County Foundation Annual Celebration Committee (2017-2018), Union County Healthcare Providers Association for whom she served as Secretary (2017-2018), and Team Marysville as a member (2016/2017) and as Leadership Board Secretary (2017/2018). She loves to travel, play board games with family and friends, attend her children's many events, and sing with her brother.

Magistrate Mosser is a member of the Logan County Bar Association and the Union County Bar Association, as well as the Ohio State Bar Association and Ohio Association of Magistrates.
